

EXPLORE the Outdoors

Cummins Falls

Cummins Falls State Park in Cookeville, TN, is a scenic natural area known for its stunning 75-foot waterfall, hiking trails, and opportunities for swimming and picnicking amidst lush, forested surroundings.

Dogwood Park

Dogwood Park in Cookeville, TN, is a charming community park featuring beautiful flower gardens, a serene walking path, a pond, and a performance pavilion for outdoor events and concerts.

Cane Creek Park

Cane Creek Park in Cookeville, TN, offers a peaceful retreat with a scenic 160-acre lake, walking trails, picnic areas, and recreational opportunities like fishing, kayaking, and birdwatching.

Burgess Falls

Burgess Falls State Park in Cookeville, TN, features a series of breathtaking waterfalls, including the towering 136-foot Burgess Falls, along with picturesque hiking trails and serene views of the Falling Water River.

Cookeville Depot Museum

The Cookeville Depot Museum in Cookeville, TN, is a historic train station-turned-museum showcasing the region's railroad heritage with exhibits on local history, antiques, and vintage railroad artifacts.

